POSITION

The consultant is responsible for supporting government affairs and public policy projects in Thailand, across a variety of sectors and in a cross-cultural setting. The role will involve engaging with government, writing analytical reports, and research and analysis of complex policy, political, and policy issues across a wide variety of sectors.

We expect the candidate to be experienced at project management and client communications, with proven capacity to drive projects to completion, work with small, nimble teams and external specialists of varying levels of seniority and expertise, and build and sustain external coalitions.

We prefer but do not require that the candidate have strong government experience and connections, with proven capacity to drive projects to completion. Experience in either the government or in the private sector working with the government will be favourably considered.

We expect the candidate to be an adept analytical and strategic thinker, with well-honed skills in synthesizing complex information, drawing conclusions, and translating them into action. Clearly communicating plans of action to international professionals will be part of your daily work.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Government relations: Liaise and coordinate with officials at government agencies on behalf of clients.
- Strategic counsel: Develop recommendations to facilitate client engagement with stakeholders to advance GR objectives in Thailand across various sectoral and policy issues.
- Research and report writing: Oversee the research and drafting of analytical reports.
- Firm representation: Represent V&P at external engagements, including business missions, meetings, workshops, and conferences.
- Business development: Supports proposal developments and meetings.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Prefer three to six years relevant work experience in government or a private-sector external affairs role in a multi-national company, consulting, government, journalism, or think tanks.
- A relevant undergraduate degree, preferably in areas of political science, economics, public policy, law, or international relations. An advanced degree is a value-add.
- Strong knowledge and understanding of Thailand's political and policy dynamics.
- Effective time management skills and ability to handle multiple tasks.
