POSITION

The Associate is responsible for leading government affairs and public policy projects in Myanmar, across a variety of sectors and in a cross-cultural setting.

We expect the candidate to be an experienced project and client manager with proven capacity to drive projects in a high-pressure environment to completion, work with nimble teams and external specialists of varying levels of seniority and expertise, and build and sustain external coalitions.

We expect the candidate to be an adept analytical and strategic thinker, with well-honed skills in synthesizing complex information, drawing conclusions, and translating them into action. Clearly communicating plans of action to international professionals will be part of your daily work.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Relevant work experience in an in-house government or external affairs role in a multi-national company, consulting, government, journalism, or think tanks.
- A relevant undergraduate degree, preferably in areas of political science, economics, public policy, law, or international relations. An advanced degree is a value-add.
- Strong knowledge and understanding of Myanmar dynamics.
- Effective time management skills and ability to handle multiple tasks.
- Motivated self-starter, team player, eagerness to contribute to firm's growth.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in English is a must. Fluency in Burmese is strongly preferred but not required.
