POSITION

The Senior Associate is responsible for leading government affairs and public policy projects in Indonesia across a variety of sectors.

The candidate will be an experienced project and client manager with proven capacity to lead engagements with the Indonesian government, drive projects to completion in a high-pressure environment, work with nimble teams and external specialists of varying levels of seniority and expertise, and build and sustain external coalitions.

We expect the candidate to be a strong English writer as well as an adept analytical and strategic thinker, with well-honed skills in synthesizing complex information, drawing conclusions and recommendations, and translating them into action. Leading the preparation, drafting and finalization of analytical reports, as well as clearly communicating plans of action to international professionals, will be part of your daily work.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Eight to ten years relevant work experience, preferably an in-house government or external affairs role in a multi-national company, public affairs consulting, journalism, or think tanks.
- A relevant undergraduate degree, preferably in areas of political science, economics, journalism, history, public policy or law. An advanced degree is a value-add.
- Experience in reviewing and assessing regulations, and a knowledge of the legislative process.
- Experience in tech and healthcare sectors will be considered an advantage.
- Strong knowledge and understanding of Indonesian government, policy and decision making, protocols, cultural norms, and political landscape.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in English.
- Fluent in Bahasa Indonesia.

Interested candidates should send their applications to careers@vrienspartners.com and indicate the position being applied for in the subject line. Please include a cover letter demonstrating interest and fitness for the position (required) and current resume.
