

VRIENS & PARTNERS

NAVIGATING THE POLITICS OF BUSINESS

COUNTRY DIRECTOR, SINGAPORE

Vriens & Partners (V&P) is the leading government affairs consulting firm in Southeast Asia. Headquartered in Singapore, the firm has offices in Indonesia, Vietnam, Thailand, the Philippines, Myanmar, Malaysia, and Cambodia. Our team comprises 80 full-time employees from over ten nationalities, as well as 40 senior advisors from across the region.

Our clients are primarily major multinationals, along with various business associations and non-governmental organizations. A growing advisory firm, V&P offers a challenging and fulfilling work environment. Find out more at www.vrienspartners.com

POSITION

The Country Director will lead our growing Singapore government affairs practice, and contribute to regional client and project coordination and business development. They will be an inspiring leader, a skilled analyst, an insightful client manager, an organised project manager, and possess strong EQ, business sense, and cross-cultural skills.

Your priority will be to oversee Singapore-focused advisory work, developing Government Affairs strategies for our multinational clients to advance business objectives. You will be conversant communicating public policies and engagement strategies to clients. You will also manage and mentor a team of Government Affairs consultants.

Along with senior management, you will interact with regional and global executives, strengthen the firm's government affairs practice, and build market share. You will also raise the firm's profile with key stakeholders by maintaining and growing the firm's network in Southeast Asia's public, private, and political spheres.

As Country Director, you'll keep a close eye on legislative and policy changes that could impact V&P's clients, assess challenges and opportunities, and lead research on policy issues. You'll also prepare and deliver written and verbal analysis and strategy for clients.
